Election Day

If you live in Birmingham, Mobile or Tuscaloosa, today is ELECTION DAY!

ADAP urges every voter to exercise their basic right and cast a ballot. People with disabilities typically have a far lower turnout than other groups of voters. Let's change that today by going to vote.

While we certainly hope you do not encounter any problems when voting, we also understand that some polling sites may have accessibility problems.

If you have a problem while voting, we urge you to complete an Alabama Voter Complaint form. Your polling site must provide you with a complaint form upon request. You can also access a copy of the form here, click here.

If you, due to disability, have a problem while voting, we also ask you to please contact us by calling 1-800-826-1675 or email, adap@adap.ua.edu.

ADAP can assist you in addressing issues in both accessing your polling site and the actual process of casting a ballot.

Every vote truly counts and ADAP wants to make sure every voter has full and equal access to the election process.

HAVE PRESENTATION. WILL TRAVEL

Are you a member of a group that needs a speaker for an upcoming meeting? If so, ADAP can fill this need. ADAP staff provides education/training sessions on a wide variety of disability-related topics including, but not limited to: the Americans with Disabilities Act, Medicaid waivers, guardianships, special education, general disability rights, and transition services for youth who will soon become adults. We will also speak on specifically requested, disability-related topics. If you are interested in making arrangements for ADAP to come speak at one of your meetings, please contact Anita Davidson, one of ADAP's Legal Assistants, by calling 205-348-5107, or emailing her, akdavidson@adap.ua.edu
