ALABAMA DISABILITIES ADVOCACY PROGRAM
September 16, 2013

The Alabama Disabilities Advocacy Program (ADAP) is part of the nationwide federally mandated protection and advocacy (P&A) system. ADAP's mission is to provide quality, legally based advocacy services to Alabamians with disabilities in order to protect, promote and expand their rights.

Starting this past week, for the first time, hundreds of thousands of uninsured Alabamians have access to a Health Insurance Marketplace where they have more choices, more affordable health insurance plans, and new financial help to access health coverage and care.

While many Alabamians with disabilities may already have insurance coverage of some kind, many do not.

The attached flyer provides a place to start.

Please distribute broadly.

And, please call Arise or ADAP if you have questions.

HAVE PRESENTATION. WILL TRAVEL

Are you a member of a group that needs a speaker for an upcoming meeting? If so, ADAP can fill this need. ADAP staff provides education/training sessions on a wide variety of disability-related topics including, but not limited to: the Americans with Disabilities Act, Medicaid waivers, guardianships, special education, general disability rights, and transition services for youth who will soon become adults. We will also speak on specifically requested, disability-related topics. If you are interested in making arrangements for ADAP to come speak at one of your meetings, please contact Anita Davidson, one of ADAP's Legal Assistants, by calling 205-348-5107, or emailing her, akdavidson@adap.ua.edu
